

CLASSICAL MYTHOLOGY CREATIVE PROJECT

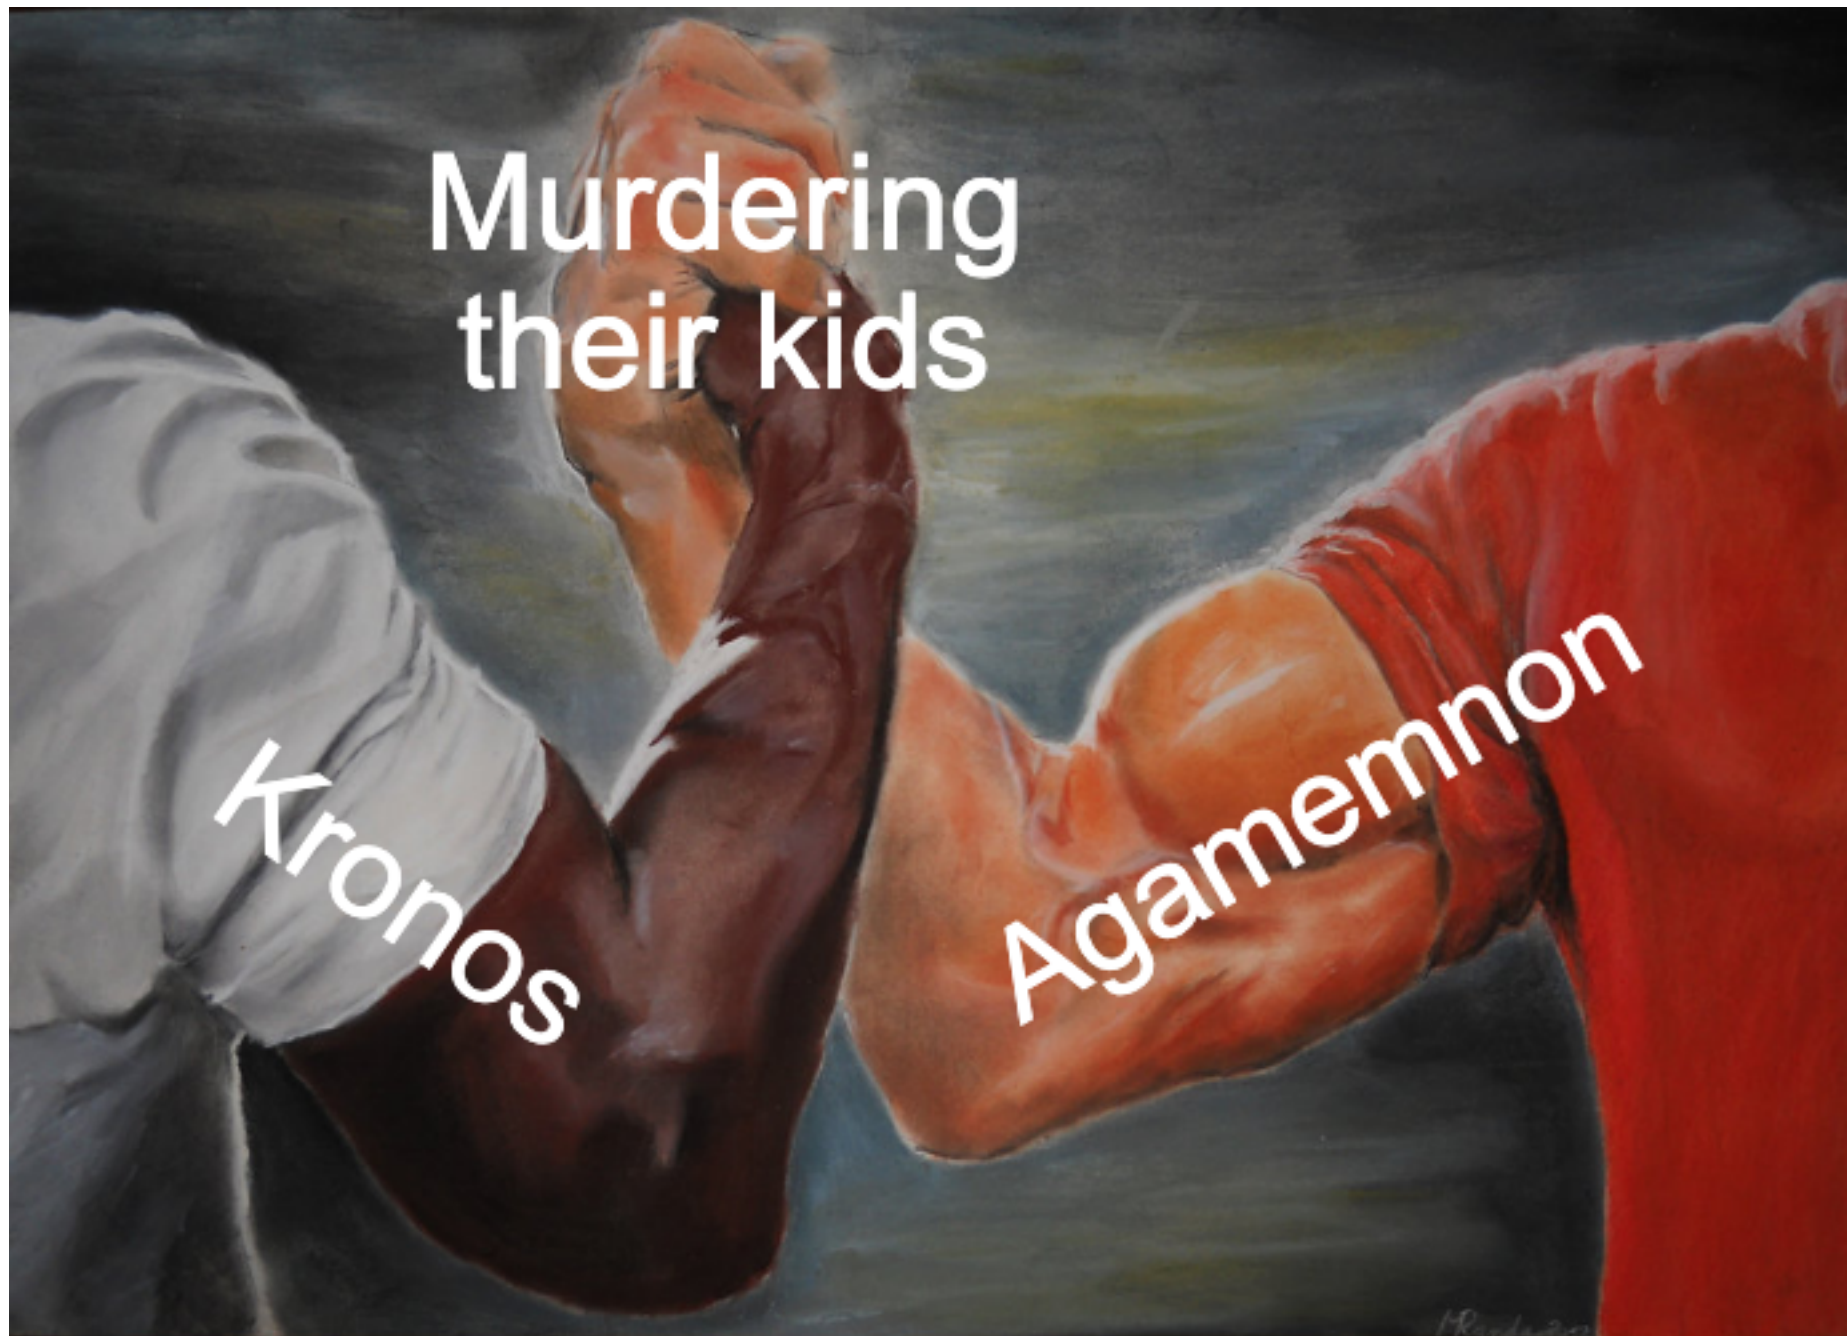

By: Dymon White

This image describes how Zeus has a long history of raping women and in the myth “Homeric Hymn to Apollo” Zeus cheats on Hera with Leto and it results in Hera seeking revenge by prolonging Leto’s birth.

In this image it shows the messy situation that occurred in Eumenides where a murderous chain reaction is set off when Agamemnon murders his daughter Iphigenia. Clytemnestra then murders her husband out of revenge. Orestes murders his mother in retaliation for the murder of his father. The story ends with Orestes avoiding facing the wrath of the furies.

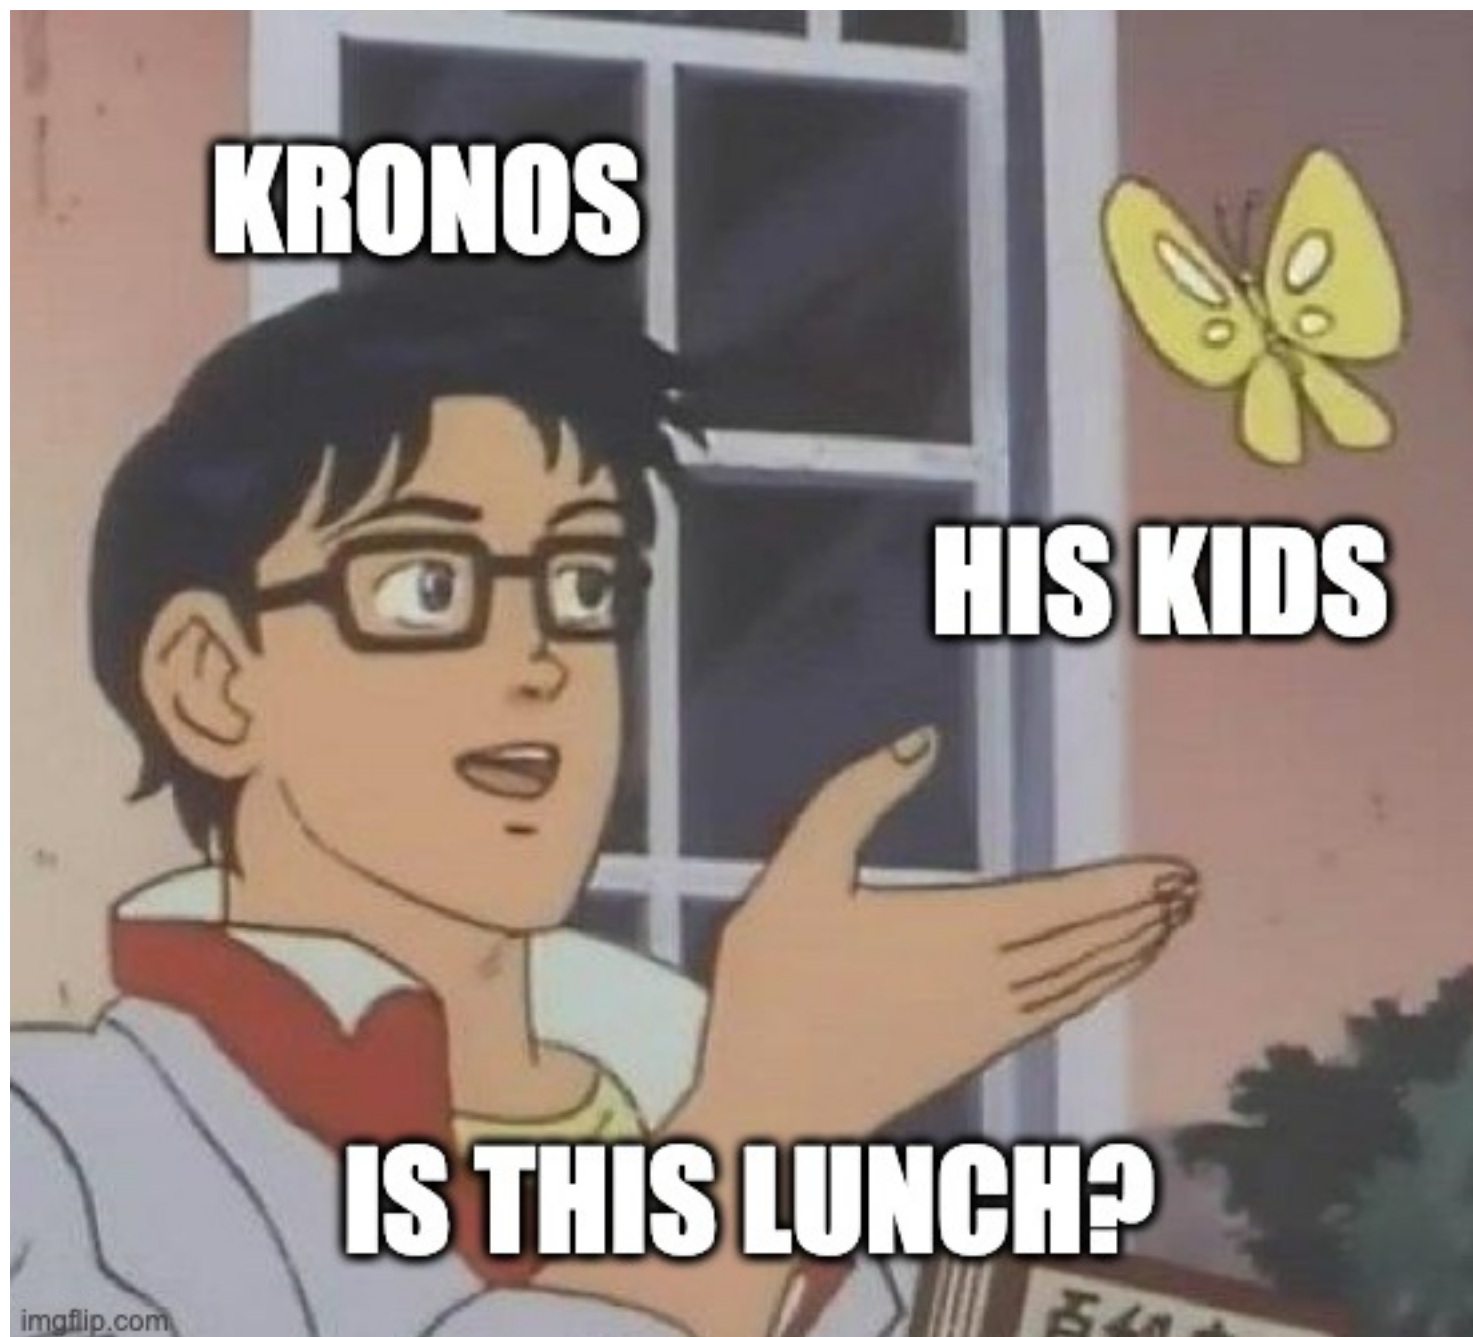

This image depicts the common trait that Kronos and Agamemnon share. Kronos swallowed his children because a prophecy stated he would be taken down by one of them. Agamemnon kills his daughter to win the war.
